When we go with the gospel, some will _____ it and others will _____ it.

There are at least four reasons why I believe these instructions are not normative for us today:

1. They were initially sent _____ to the Israelites. (Matthew 10:5-7)
2. The next time they are sent out the restriction of no provisions is _____. (Luke 23:35-36)
3. Later, their mandate is to make disciples “among _____ the nations” according to Matthew 28:19-20.
4. The early church did not view these initial instructions as _____.

While not prescriptive, we can draw three principles from this passage that have application to our lives today:

1. _____
