The Gospel of Mark: Servant and Savior—Part 3
Mark 1:12-20
January 20, 2019

Here's the big idea for today:

It's costly to follow Christ, but the price is worth paying.

We'll see this in three vignettes from the life of Jesus found in Mark 1:12-20:

Vignette Number One: Terrible _____. (vv.12-13)

Let's draw some principles from this terrible temptation:

1. Temptation often comes right after a _____ spiritual experience.
2. The Holy Spirit sends us into _____ so we can learn to stand up to _____.
3. Times of temptation and trial can last a _____ time.
4. Sometimes we are called to _____ in isolation.
5. God will give us what we _____ to tackle temptation.

Vignette Number Two: Real _____ (vv. 14-15)

Let's pull out some principles from this section:

1. The _____ we proclaim comes from God Himself.
2. God's timing is always _____.
3. The kingdom of God is _____.

Vignette Number Three: _____ discipleship (vv. 16-18)

Let's break down what happens next:

1. _____.

Jesus said to them, "Follow me." (v. 17)

2. _____.

"And I will make you become fishers of men."

3. _____.

“And immediately they left their nets and followed him.”

Three applications to this message:

1. Get saved by _____ and _____ Jesus Christ.
2. Surrender and _____ follow Christ.
3. _____ whoever, wherever and whenever.
