Here then are some clear statements from God's Word regarding God's will for us (there's a lot more):

_____ justice, be kind and walk humbly. (Micah 6:8)

Don't be conformed but be _____. (Romans 12:2)

Don't marry a spiritually _____ mate. (2 Corinthians 6:14)

Walk _____ and use your _____ well. (Ephesians 5:15-17)

Be set _____ and abstain from _____. (1 Thessalonians 4:3)

Be _____ in all that happens. (1 Thessalonians 5:18)

_____ what God has given to you. (Proverbs 3:9-10)

Do _____ even when _____ is done to you. (1 Peter 2:15)

_____ to do the will of God. (1 Peter 4:2)

2. Have I persisted in _____?

Here's a principle:

When possible, choose to _____ and _____ for at least a day before making a decision.

3. Do I have all the _____?

4. What are my _____?

5. What do wise people _____?

6. How is my past _____ me?

8. How will this decision enable me to _____ and draw near to God?
9. What _____ does God want me to take?
10. Have I _____ to God's authority?

This passage gives us two key responsibilities:

We're called to (1) _____ on the Lord and (2) _____ to love Him with everything we have.
