Joshua 3:16:

The water above that point began backing up a great distance away at a town called Adam, which is near Zarethan. And the water below that point flowed on to the Dead Sea until the riverbed was dry. Then all the people crossed over near the town of Jericho.

Then Joshua told the people, "Purify yourselves, for tomorrow the Lord will do great wonders among you." --Joshua 3:5

But the whole community began to talk about stoning Joshua and Caleb. --Numbers 14:10

They answered Joshua, "We will do whatever you command us, and we will go wherever you send us." --Joshua 1:16

Faith is the confidence that what we hope for will actually happen; it gives us assurance about things we cannot see.

--Hebrews 11:1

And it is impossible to please God without faith. Anyone who wants to come to him must believe that God exists and that he rewards those who sincerely seek him. --Hebrews 11:6

The priests will carry the Ark of the LORD, the Lord of all the earth. As soon as their feet touch the water, the flow of water will be cut off upstream, and the river will stand up like a wall."

--Joshua 3:13

But the fact of the matter was that this incident had to happen for two reasons.

1. To _____ their faith.
2. They were proving their willingness to _____ God, no matter what.

What did Joshua know?

1. He Knew the Provisions of the _____
2. He Knew the Promise of the _____
3. He Knew His Faith Would be _____
