Holy Heroes--Part 3
Ecclesiastes 4:9-11
July 9, 2017

Two are better than one, because they have a good return for their labor: If either of them falls down, one can help the other up. But pity anyone who falls and has no one to help them up. Also, if two lie down together, they will keep warm. But how can one keep warm alone? Though one may be overpowered, two can defend themselves. A cord of three strands is not quickly broken.

--Ecclesiastes 4:9-12 NIV

Three benefits of belonging to a church family:

1. Belonging to a church family provides _____.

“Two people are better than one, because they get more done by working together...a rope that is woven of three strings is hard to break.”--Ecclesiastes 4:9, 12 NCV

2. Belonging to a church family provides _____.

“Two are better off than one, because...If one of them falls down, the other can help him up. But if someone is alone and falls, it’s just too bad, because there is no one to help him.”

--Ecclesiastes 4:9-10 GWT

3. Belonging to a church family provides _____ warmth.

“Two people are better off than one, for... two people lying close together can keep each other warm. But how can one be warm alone?” --Ecclesiastes 4:9-11 NLT
