

Give Thanks!
Psalm 9:1-10
November 20, 2016

I will give thanks to the Lord with all my heart; I will tell of all Your wonders. [2] I will be glad and exult in You; I will sing praise to Your name, O Most High. [3] When my enemies turn back, They stumble and perish before You. [4] For You have maintained my just cause; You have sat on the throne judging righteously. [5] You have rebuked the nations, You have destroyed the wicked; You have blotted out their name forever and ever. [6] The enemy has come to an end in perpetual ruins, And You have uprooted the cities; The very memory of them has perished. [7] But the Lord abides forever; He has established His throne for judgment, [8] And He will judge the world in righteousness; He will execute judgment for the peoples with equity. [9] The Lord also will be a stronghold for the oppressed, A stronghold in times of trouble; [10] And those who know Your name will put their trust in You, For You, O Lord, have not forsaken those who seek You.

--Psalm 9:1-10 (NASB)

In David's psalm of thanksgiving, he not only says "I will give thanks," but he describes three ways in which we can live a life of thankfulness:

How do live grateful and appreciative lives?

1. We can live out our thankfulness by _____.

"I will give thanks to the Lord with all my heart; I will tell of all Your wonders" (v. 1).

2. The second is _____.

"I will be glad and exult in You; I will sing praise to Your name, O Most High" (v. 2).

3. The third is by _____:

"The Lord also will be a stronghold for the oppressed, A stronghold in times of trouble; [10] And those who know Your name will put their trust in You, For You, O Lord, have not forsaken those who seek You" (v. 9-10).
