Big Idea:

Jesus came for those who have _____ and for those who live in _____.

The first to encounter Jesus on this side of the lake was a man of fame.

1. We're given the name of this man of distinction--_____.
2. He's in crisis and needs the help that only _____ can provide.
3. His "child's life was in _____ and a quick decision had to be made."

Almost as soon as we're introduced to Jairus, a nameless woman appears out of nowhere.

We know some sad things about her condition:

1. She was _____.
2. She was _____ unclean.
3. She had _____ all her money.
4. She was _____ help.

I can think of three reasons why he asked her this question:

1. To enable her to give _____ of what Jesus had done.
2. To _____ her belief and _____ her faith.
3. To show the crowd that she is now _____ and is to be accepted back into society.

Let's pull out a few implications and applications from this passage:

1. Start seeing your _____ as God's _____.
2. Refuse to attach _____ to people according to their relative importance.
3. Identify a situation in which you need to stop _____ and start having _____.
4. Go _____ with your faith.
5. Don't wait for a _____ before you commit yourself to Christ.
