

Can God Be Known?
Psalm 19
October 7, 2018

God can only be known as He _____ Himself known.

In Psalm 19, David speaks of three types of revelations:

In verses 1-6, God makes Himself known through what theologians call "_____ revelation."

Verses 7-14 God unveils Himself through "_____ revelation."

And in the last verse, we have a Messianic hint of God's ultimate revelation - the _____.

Psalm 19:1-6 (natural revelation)

Observations on Verses 1-6:

1. Proclamation of _____.
2. There is no _____ in their song.
3. A Pervasive _____.
4. _____ Power.

More observations on Psalm 8:1-4:

1. Nature gives us a proper _____ of ourselves.
2. Natural revelation leaves us without _____.
3. Natural Revelation is _____ in scope and function.

Psalm 19:7-9 (special revelation)

1. The Law of the Lord is _____, reviving the soul.
2. The statutes of the Lord are _____,
making wise the simple.
3. The precepts of the Lord are _____,
giving joy to the heart.
4. The commands of the Lord are _____,
giving light to the eyes.
5. The fear of the Lord is _____, enduring forever.
6. The ordinances of the Lord are _____ and altogether righteous.
7. They are _____.
8. The instructions of the Lord are also _____:
9. They also have an _____:

Psalm 19:12-13

David offers up three prayers.

1. A prayer for _____.
2. A prayer for _____.
3. A prayer for _____.

He desires:

Purity in _____.

Purity in _____:

Psalm 19:14: (Incarnational Revelation)

Look at the very last words of the song: "My Rock and my redeemer."

"My rock" is a description of the _____ God.

"My Redeemer" can only be known by the _____ revelation of Scripture.

Action Steps

1. If you have not placed your trust in Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, do it this morning.

2. As you leave this church, stop and look at a cloud.

Did you ever realize that a cloud can weigh thousands of pounds but floats effortlessly though the air?

3. Thank God for sunsets, for flowers, for beaches, and mountains, and goats, and aardvarks, and penguins, and mosquitoes, and your brain, and rain, and snowflakes, and ask His forgiveness for taking these miracles for granted.

3. Spend a few moments outside tonight and try to count the stars. (When you finish I'll give you a prize)

4. Read Psalm 19 every day for a month.

5. Memorize verse 14.